

A Personal List

Reminiscences:

- Our president, Phillip Goran' s lovely speaking voice when presenting Barmitzvah books
- Us boys playing soccer in the grounds on High Holydays before and after the building of the "new" Schule
- Services upstairs in the "old" building
- Tom Goldman's sweet singing voice
- The office bearer's Homburg hats
- Moving to the Town Hall on High Holidays as we grew in numbers
- Mr Rischin picking up myself, Trevor Collins, & Eddie Saul, on Saturday mornings in his giant American car
- Paying a penny on each of two double-decker buses to go to Sunday School then back, with my brothers
- The friendly rivalry with Bankstown Schule
- The kids we grew up with, with whom we still share an affinity
- Clearing the chairs after Saturday morning for a function on Sunday
- Youth group outings to Conway's or Hyman's ice skating rinks
- The Purim parties in the old building

Education:

- Mr Solomon and Miss Boaz on Sundays in the old building

Community Organisations:

- My father, who seemed to spend all his spare time around the Schule, either as president of the Blue Box Committee, or Treasurer of the Schule
- My Mother involved in the Ladies committee
- Mrs Bernstein's endless cooking
- Aaron Shaw's noisy but tireless work
- All the Mums pitching in to cater and raise money
- My father's preference to sit with us in schule rather than up front as Treasurer with a silly hat on

Youth Movements:

- Habonim meetings on Sunday afternoons
- Deanne Goran as president of the youth group
